Murderers Hanged.

A Quadruple Execution Takes Place in New York.

EACH HAD KILLED A WOMAN

Patrick Backenham, Jack Lewis, James Nolan and Ferdinand Carolin Pay the Death Penalty on the Gallows—Brief History of Their Crimes.

New York, Aug. 24.—The four murderers of women, Patrick Backenham, Jack Lewis, colored, James Nolan and Ferdinand Carolin, were hanged in the yard of the Tombs prison Friday morning. There were two scaffolds, and two men were hanged on each. Backenham and Nolan were first executed on the scaffold which had been erected on the Franklin street side of the prison. The drop fell at 6:55 o'clock. Eight minutes later Lewis and Carolin were hanged from the scaffold on the Leonard street side.

BACKENHAM. FERDINAND CAROLIN.

JAMES NOLAN. JACK LEWIS.

The first two men were pronounced dead at 7:10, but were permitted to hang fifteen minutes longer. Seven minutes after the drop fell the other two men were pronounced dead. All four of the bodies were cut down and placed in plain coffins.

THEIR CRIMES.

Patrick Backenham, who was formerly a New Orleans policeman, cut the throat of his wife, Margaret, March 13, 1888, at No. 212 West Twenty-seventh street, because she refused him money which he had to buy liquor. Twice he was threatened with arrest for beating the woman and attempting to throw his son out of a window, and an hour later he committed the crime for which he has suffered.

Jack Lewis, colored, deliberately killed Alice Jackson, a mulatto woman, on July 17, 1888, at 84 West Third street, because she refused to live with him any longer, he having previously shot her and made her a cripple.

James Nolan shot Mrs. Emma Bach on Nov. 20, 1888, at No. 9 Second avenue, because she announced her intentions of leaving him.

Ferdinand Carolin murdered his wife Bridget on March 10, 1888, at 47 Stanton street by striking her on the head with an ax while intoxicated.

Charles Giblin, who on Feb. 17, 1888, shot Mrs. Madeline Goetz at 162 West Houston street, while endeavoring to shoot her husband, Valentine, in a quarrel over a counterfeit bill, was also condemned to die yesterday, but was reprieved sixty days by the governor last Wednesday.

All of these five men were sentenced to death between December and February, and having appealed from the verdict, had their appeals overruled by the court of final resort. By a curious coincidence the judges, whose duty it was to resentence them, selected the same day of execution for all. Never in the history of the Tombs have so many men expiated their crimes on the same day. Once before there were four, but one being a white man, his attention to dying in company with three colored men led a governor to respite him to another day.

Other Murderers in the Tombs.

Besides Giblin and Cavlin, who are already under sentence of death, there are fifteen men and one woman in the Tombs prison waiting trial for homicide.

Giovanni Scisenti killed Henry Narwick, a peddler, in December, 1888. George Kelly killed Charles McLaughlin with a base ball bat in July, 1888.

James Crowe stabbed Michael Crowe, his cousin, in January, 1889. John Burk stabbed Michael Moore during the same month.

Bernard McLaughlin threw his wife, Mary Ann, down a flight of stairs, and caused her death.

William Blauvelt, alias William Brennan shot John Dugan in March.

Rufus Samms stabbed his brother, Tobias, in April.

Charles F. Wilson shot his wife, Louisa, in May, through jealousy.

Anthon Longoria fractured the skull of his wife, Angelina, in June, with a smoothing iron.

William Woods shot Charles Ruffan a few days later in June while they were at work on the Fulton aqueduct.

William Salley is agent of a thriving Benjamin faction from an eastern barge July 1.

Joseph and Philip Versano stabbed Thomas Barra, in Second avenue, July 2, while quarreling about some oranges.

Henry Wougenwick shot John Griffin, Aug. 3, after trying to shoot his victim's mother.

Thomas Patterson killed David Bartley, Aug. 3.

Emma Cordes dealt her husband, Henry, a fatal blow by striking him in the head with a meat platter.

Hanging in Montana.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 24.—Henry Roberts was hanged here Friday afternoon for the unprovoked killing last May of J. W. Crawford, a teamster in his employ. Roberts' neck was broken by the fall.

Texas Has a Hanging.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Aug. 24. Jim McCoy, the noted desperado of southern Texas, was hanged here at 11:30 Friday for the murder of Sheriff McKenney, Dec. 26, 1886.

WEST POINT PRIZE-FIGHTERS.

Two Cadets Settle a Dispute in English Style—A Draw.

West Point, Aug. 24. Cadet Dickson, of New York, and Cadet Stetson, of Texas, agreed to settle a quarrel by Marquis of Queensberry rules. They were given five seconds, timekeepers, and they proceeded to engage each other to the shelter of old Fort Putnam. Both showed pluck, but Stetson possessed the most science. In round after round he succeeded in getting in effective blows on his opponent while saving himself from any material injury. In the fourth round after round was called Dickson fairly lost the mark.

When the twelfth round was called Dickson's eyes were pulled up and discolored. In the thirty-fifth round Dickson received a stunning blow between the eyes that nearly knocked him out, but he again rallied and was at the mark when time for the thirty-sixth round was called. The seconds proposed to call the fight a draw, but the referee decided that as long as the principals were willing to continue it should go on. They were still fighting away, having been at it one hour and five minutes, when the reveille sounded. Fighting was instantly suspended and the referee hastily decided the battle a draw.

MORE SE ZORES.

This Time It is the American Sealing Schooner James G. Swan.

Pt. Townsend, W. T., Aug. 4.—The American sealing schooner James G. Swan was seized in Behring Sea on July 30, with 235 head of seals aboard by the government revenue cutter Richard Rush. The vessel's documents, five-arms and skins were taken aboard the Rush, and she was ordered to Sitka, Alaska, to be turned over to the American authorities. The captain behaved without charts and unacquainted with Alaskan coast proceeded to this point and surrender his vessel to the collector of customs.

There are between forty and fifty vessels now in Behring sea. The Rush seized the British Schooner Ennetta, with 400 skins, July 31. The captain of the Swan confirms the reported seizure of the Pythander and Minnie. The Pythander was the only vessel placed in charge of American officers excepting the Black Diamond.

A Bitter Race Feeling.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 24.—Mount Pleasant, the scene of the race war, is now garrisoned by state troops. The prisoner has been sent to the city under guard. The negroes threaten to burn the town. The trouble arose from the accidental shooting by Frederick Schaffer, a white boy, aged 17 years, of a negro woman named Madrie Holmes, who had just made a purchase in the store. The boy was cleaning a gun, which went off accidentally. The woman in her ante mortem statement, deposed that the shooting was accidental. The race feeling is very bitter, not only at Mount Pleasant, but even in this city, and further trouble is anticipated.

The Gang Getting Even.

YAZOO CITY, Aug. 24.—Capt. Samuel Whitworth, who was recently acquitted at Greenville, of the charge of murdering Ives and Alston, of the McCarthy brother's gang, who were killed during a fight with Whitworth and two friends at Rising Sun a year ago, was shot dead from ambush while riding near Rising Sun yesterday evening. He had been advised not to return to the neighborhood, and it is supposed that the McCarthy faction were concerned in his murder.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 24.—Brownell, who killed a deputy marshal who was attempting to arrest him for moonshining, was released from custody last night for lack of evidence.

An Excellent Showing

Such is the Present Condition of Business.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

Splendid Crop Prospects Cause a General Improvement of Business in Nearly all the Leading Trade Centers—Effects of Recent Failures—Other Monetary Matters.

New York, Aug. 24.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The monetary pressure, of which so many warnings have been given, has operated this week to modify an improvement in general trade due to excellent crop prospects. It is quite the fashion in stock exchange circles to represent the rise in leading rates as artificial, and intended to affect prices in stocks.

But the truth is that the speculation of various sorts had previously withdrawn too much money from the support of legitimate business and protective industry, and the tendency of apprehension as to the future has been to cut down time loans still further, while many of the lenders have preferred to place their money on call with ready negotiable collateral. Thus supplies for carrying securities and floating trusts stocks have been increased, even while lack of commercial accumulations has caused failures of importance. The treasury, meanwhile, has been collecting its surplus revenue from the people at large, but disbursing it to holders of bonds, and so to lenders at monetary centers. The treasury has no other means of disbursing a surplus which failure to reduce revenue has caused, but the result has tended for months to cause a fairly distribution of the monetary supply.

The suspension of important mills, resulting from recent failures of commercial houses, comes just when there are brighter prospects for manufacturing than at any previous time since the winter. With orders in sight, the mill could go on, it is said, and facilities could soon be met. But if this be the fact, it shows the extent of the pressure in commercial money markets. The immediate consequences are greater caution as to loans and a quick arrest of purchases of materials for wool and cotton manufacturers. This at Boston, the wool market has been completely unsettled again, sales for the week amounting to only 1,100,000 pounds, all in small lots, and concessions of one to two cents would be necessary in order to move large lots.

It is observed, also, that while rates for the best strictly commercial loans are not materially advanced, the demand for single name paper has almost ceased, and many who have practiced relying upon that method find loans impossible. The banks scrutinize closely and the prevalent caution regarding the movement of paper seriously. Here the demand for commercial paper is very light and four months paper ranges from 6 to 7 1/2 per cent. The money markets of interior cities are far better supplied; at Chicago by liberal receipts from the country, and at most other points because the demand has as yet been only moderate, but some closeness is noted at St. Paul, with slow collections.

From all quarters improvement in business is reported, with fine prospects for fall trade consequent upon large crops. At Chicago the actual transactions are about equal to last year's in clothing, a little larger in boots and shoes and 18 per cent. larger in dry goods. The grocery trade improves at most points, excepting as to sugar, for which the demand has been much affected by the operations of the trust and raw is one-fourth lower. Coffee is in better demand and one-eighth higher, and the serious injury to the eastern potato crop by wet weather has caused a sharp advance. Butter and eggs are also higher and cotton three-sixteenths for spool, notwithstanding a decline of one-eighth in print cloths.

The splendid crop prospects begin to have their legitimate effect upon prices of breadstuffs and provision. Hogs have declined this week twenty cents per one hundred pounds, and twelve cents and pork fifty cents per barrel; oats and corn one-half cent each, the latter with sales of 5,000,000 bushels, and wheat has declined one and one-half cents with sales of only 7,500,000 bushels here. The speculative movement in wheat has been defeated by liberal receipts from the farms, and when the farmers market freely early in the season, the prospect for fall trade is excellent and monetary pressure is not usually of long duration.

The iron and steel business appears still more encouraging to most producers and dealers, and some furnaces have been added this week to the producing force. But the rapid increase in supply renders consumers more confident as to lower prices in the near future, and for the moment there is firmness of tone in the market rather than activity.

Business failures, during the week for the United States 190, for Canada 16, total 206, compared with 213 last week and 201 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 187 in the United States and 27 in Canada.

Ten Workers Out of Employment.

BELLEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 24.—It has been announced by one of the stockholders of the Centre Iron company's works, which closed down a few days ago that the works would not probably resume again, on account of not paying expenses. About 750 men will be thrown out of employment.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES.

Mrs. Maybrick is Informed of Her Commutation of Sentence.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 24.—The official messenger, bearing the announcement of the commutation of Mrs. Maybrick's sentence, did not reach the jail until 3 o'clock. The news was at once communicated to the prisoner, who betrayed some emotion, but not to the extent that was anticipated.

The chaplain visited her at breakfast time. The revulsion of feeling had then prostrated her, and she seemed weaker than at any time since her arrest. It is feared that she will not live long.

Strike in London Spreading.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Members of other trades are joining the striking dockmen. The carmen of Pickford and company, general carriers and agents of the London and Northwestern and other railway companies, have gone out, and the railway carmen are joining them. The laborers at Spratt's biscuit factory have struck, causing an entire stoppage of work. All classes of unskilled labor in London threaten to join in the strike, and trouble is feared. The police are making preparations for the emergency.

The Times Sets Up Another Howl.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Times says there is a curious want of seriousness about the American seizures in Behring sea. They appear to be intended to frighten away Victorian sealers by the sham formalities of capture, the usual penalties not being exacted. The Times further declares, in all friendliness, that England will, in case her rights are involved, vigorously defend them.

The Emperor in Metz.

Metz, Aug. 24.—The Emperor William yesterday reviewed garrison here, wearing uniform of the Gardecorps. The empress witnessed the parade from her carriage. Both afterwards inspected the cathedral. They were everywhere greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

Anti-Tenants' League Fund.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Irish Catholic publishes a list of subscribers to the Land Corporation Grantee company, a counter movement to the Irish League. The subscribers amount to £115,153. The list includes the names of all the landlords and agents prominent in the land struggle.

WRECK ON THE B. & O.

Three People Instantly Killed and Several Others Fatally Injured.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 24.—Friday morning the accommodation train, due here at 11:10 a. m., collided with a special coal-bound train, carrying Baltimore and Ohio officials, at a point between Petroleum and Silver Run, twenty-five miles from here on the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The accident was caused by wrong orders to pass the accommodation at Petroleum, the farther point east, and the accommodation to pass the special train at Silver Run, the farther point west.

At the time of the collision both trains were going thirty-five miles an hour. They met on a sharp curve, and without a moment's warning dashed into each other wrecking both engines and a baggage car, instantly killing Engineer Layman, fatally injuring Engineer George Rowland, and instantly killing the two firemen, James Fletcher and John Bailey. One of the officials named Hunter, was badly and perhaps fatally hurt. A Mrs. Manley, of Central, W. Va., was badly injured. Conductor Robert Malley, of this city, was out and bruised. Baggage-master Rose was out. A colored porter on the special was thrown through a glass door and probably fatally injured. There were some miraculous escapes. The dead bodies were brought here.

The accident was caused by the train dispatcher at Grafton giving wrong orders. The accommodation train carried but few passengers and but one coach was attached to the special, or the loss of life might have been much greater.

CRONIN SUSPECTS.

The Defense Expected to Use Every Endeavor to Secure Separate Trials.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—There is a general belief that when the Cronin murder case is called for trial, in Judge McConnell's court next Monday, the principal efforts of the defense will be directed not to securing a continuance, but to endeavoring to break the solid front of the prosecution and dividing its thunder by securing separate trials for one or more of the defendants.

State's Attorney Longenecker, however, to-day appeared to be indifferent to any such attempt. "I do not know who could ask for a separate trial," said he, "unless it would be Woodruff. The state will be ready for trial Monday, but I think some of the defendants will want a continuance. If they can show cause, they might obtain one, but I cannot tell how the state will stand on that question until the time comes."

It is understood, however, that Senator Kennedy, of Wisconsin, will make his debut in the case by an elaborate argument in favor of a separate trial for his client, Martin Burke.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Miss Clara Barton telegraphs to the United Press that the invitation of the Red Cross association to a resident Harris to visit Johnston has been misinterpreted; that the president was not invited to visit the scene of the great flood to view for himself the terrible condition of things there, but to see what great progress had been made in providing for the homeless, etc.

BRACKEN ASSOCIATION.

Closing Business of the Meeting at Dover—Resolutions in Regard to the Death of S. T. Powers.

Dr. J. T. Tichenor, of Atlanta, Ga., preached a fine sermon to a large audience on Thursday evening. After the sermon, Rev. J. Pike Powers presented the claims of the Louisville Baptist Orphan's Home, and collected about $35.

The association re-convened on Friday morning. A number of delegates had returned to their homes, but there seemed to be much more life in the body than on previous days. The subjects, "Religious Periodicals" and "Temperance," were discussed by various members.

Rev. Cleon Keyes read a letter announcing the death, by railroad accident, of a former member of the association, Mr. S. T. Powers, of Knoxville, Tenn., and after prayer for the bereaved family, the following were adopted:

Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the will of our Heavenly Father in this sad dispensation, we can but deplore his removal as a great loss to the community, to his family and to the church of which he was an honored member.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the stricken family and relatives in their sad bereavement, and sincerely pray that the grace of God may sustain and comfort them.

The subjects of "Sunday Schools" and "Colportage" and of "Ministerial Aid" were reported upon and discussed. Some miscellaneous matters were then attended to.

Resolutions of thanks to the citizens of Dover for hospitable entertainment, and to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for reduced rates to delegates were adopted, and the ninety-second session of the Bracken Association adjourned.

Drowned.

Mr. J. W. Boulden received a telegram from Lexington, requesting him to inform W. L. Savage, of Fern Leaf, that Rev. E. C. Savage's baby was drowned near Lexington yesterday. The particulars have not been learned. The remains were brought here this morning, and the funeral takes place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Fern Leaf. Rev. E. C. Savage is pastor of the Dover Circuit, M. E. Church, South.

Germantown Fair Privileges.

The old reliable Germantown fair will be held Oct. 1st to 5th inclusive, and preparations are being made for a big meeting. This always proves one of the best fairs in the State, if it does come last. It is always well attended, and this year it will prove no exception.

The privileges will be sold the first Saturday in September at 2 p. m. See notice elsewhere.

C. P. HUNTINGTON and wife have sailed for Europe. It is generally inferred that they have gone to attend the wedding of Mr. Huntington's daughter and Prince Hutzfeldt; but some who are measurably intimate with the family suspect that it is also the purpose to make further inquiries about the Prince's reputation as a "gay gambler" before parental consent is given.—Exchange.

Says the Manchester Signal: "We have listened to numerous bands in our short life, but must confess that the Maysville band makes the best orchestra music we ever listened to. We were captivated by the music rendered Tuesday evening, and must say the closing selection was far the finest we ever heard. The band has hosts of admirers in Manchester who are ever clamorous for their appearance here."

At the State meeting of the Christian Church in Versailles, B. F. Clay, State evangelist, reported the work of all the evangelists, as follows: Number of days in the field, 5,104; sermons preached, 4,830; baptisms, 1,326; reclaimed as members, 655; by letter or statement, 349; from other sources, 306; churches aided, 434; preachers located, 42; officers appointed, 151; Sunday schools organized, 43; churches organized, 15; cash for Kentucky Mission, $12,003.37; pledges for local work, $10,322.45.

COLLECTOR GOODLOE has appointed Wood Dunlap, of Lancaster, General Deputy. Each of five Collectors in Kentucky has the appointment of a General Deputy Collector. Each work in conjunction with the Revenue Agent, his territory being the whole State, no matter from what district he may be appointed. Mr. Dunlap's headquarters will be with Revenue Agent Wilmore, at Louisville. His position is worth $2,000 per annum, and as the duties are not extremely onerous, although at times a trifle dangerous, the place is considered a very good one.

MISS DORSEY L. STANTON, a daughter of Major Henry T. Stanton, and a granddaughter of Judge R. H. Stanton of the Fifth ward, was married at Frankfort, Thursday to Mr. C. W. Dorsey, of Jeffersonville, Ind. A special says: "The ceremony was performed at the family residence by Rev. H. C. Morrison, of the Methodist Church. The bride is a modest, refined and cultivated young lady, whose graces of womanhood have endeared her to a large circle of admiring friends. The groom is in the immediate employ of Mr. M. H. Smith, Vice President of the L. & N. railroad, and is said to be a worthy and most capable young man."

The Great Blue Ribbon Fair and the Famous Oddfellows' Hall :: :: :: :: :: :: :: :: :: :: Clothing House Will Be the Attractions in Maysville This Week!

Need we say that we are prepared to fill your wants in whatever you may need in our line of goods? It is with pardonable pride that we invite all visitors to take a look through our house while they are in our city. We assure you that it will pay you to do so. We are showing, for Fall wear, in our Tailoring Department the grandest line of goods in the State. By special arrangements, the two largest importing houses in the United States, viz: E. H. Van Ingen & Co. and Collins, Downing & Co., both of New York, have confined their goods to us alone, in Maysville. Gentlemen, you must take a peep at them. In our Ready-made Department we handle a full line of Adler Bros. & Co.'s Rochester, N. Y. goods, (also confined to us), every garment Custom-made. You must take a look at these, too. In our Furnishing Goods Department we carry a full line of Wilson Brothers' of Chicago, goods (also confined to our house). You will all need something in this line. We have the greatest variety of Neckwear, Hosiery, Gloves, Dress Shirts, Hats, French Flannel and English Cheviot Shirts in the State. In fact, visitors will find us HEADQUARTERS for anything they may want in our line, from a collar to a fine Dress Suit!

As a matter of course our Mr. DAVE HECHINGER expects all his friends to call on him during their visit to Maysville. Our rooms are at their disposal. All packages, traps, &c., will be taken good care of. In short, we will take the utmost pleasure to make all feel at home during their visit to THE GREAT BLUE RIBBON FAIR.

Just as sure as you are born
You'll find it very true,
The old Red Corner Clothing House
Does know a thing or two;
It knows you want the best of goods
And prices down so low
A single dollar answers where
A couple used to go;
And we want you to know the fact
That, if you are not pleased,
You're going to get your money back
As quick as lightning greased.

You can chalk it on the palms
And set it down as truth,
For stylish suits for grown-up men
The small boy and the youth,
That Johnny Martin takes the cake,
And then there is no doubt
That, as regards the price of things,
He's knocked the bottom out.

PRIZE WINNERS.

List of Those Who Carried Off the Blue Ribbon in the Arena
Yesterday.

Dr. Sparks Breaks the Record for Two-Year-Olds—Fast Time by Hour!—Big Day.

Yesterday was another big day at the Maysville fair. While the crowd present was a large one, the attendance was not quite up to that of Thursday, in point of numbers. The track in front of the amphitheatre had been well sprinkled, and the people were not troubled with the dust as much as on Thursday.

The directors for the day were Messrs.
James C. Owens, E. P. Berry, W. L.
Piper and Thomas A. Keith. The exhibition of live stock in the arena was fully equal to that of previous days. Most of the "rings" were much better filled.
The prizes went principally to Central Kentucky. Following is a list of the premiums awarded:

Harness mare, four years old and over; A.
H. Barton, Millersburg, $20.
Harness mare, three years old and under four; J. C. McClelland, Millersburg, $15.
Harness mare two years old and under three; W. T. Redmond, Bourbon County, $10.
Harness mare, one year old and under two;
J. W. Fitzgerald, Maysville, $10.
Harness mare, under one year; A. W.
Thompson, Maysville, $8.
Harness horse, mare or gelding; J. W.
Poindexter, Cynthiana, $25.
Roadster stallion, four years old and over;
J. W. Fitzgerald, Maysville, $20.
Roadster stallion, three years old and under, age to be considered; C. W. Bramblette, Carlisle, $25.
Saddle gelding, four years old and over; N.
H. Rowland, Lexington, $20.
Saddle gelding, three years old and under four; C. T. Nagle, Paris, $15.
Saddle gelding, two years old and under three; Thomas Luttrell, Lewisburg, $10.
Saddle horse, mare or gelding; N. H. Rowland, Lexington, $10.
Best park horse, mare or gelding, walk, trot and canter; N. H. Rowland, Lexington, $20.
Rockaway mare or gelding; N. H. Rowland,
Lexington, $15.
Phaeton pony, 15 hands or under; Henry Jefferson, Mt. Olivet, $10.
Model mare, horse or gelding, C. Oskamp,
Cincinnati, O., cup, $10, and $5 in money; J.
C. McClelland, Millersburg, $15.

The contests in the speed ring were the most hotly contested of the week, so far.
In the 2:20 trot the favorite, Hour, won in straight heats, Jeremiah a good second.
Hour's last heat was the fastest mile ever trotted on the track in a race. She went under the wire in 2:18½. A year ago she made 2:19½ on the track here, and in 1886 or '87 Jerome Turner won a race in same time, 2:19½. In the race yesterday the bay mare Lottie Thorn, by Mambrino Patchen, dam by Parson's Abdallah, owned by Mr. W. H. Wilson, of Abdallah Park, Cynthiana, broke badly in first quarter of the first heat, and was distanced, though she went the last quarters in splendid time. Her being distanced was one of those accidents that is liable to happen to most any good horse, and to show what she could do, her driver worked her a mile soon afterwards and sent her under the wire in 2:19½—three-quarters less than the winner's best time.

When the second race was called and the venerable Jack Hook jogged the bay colt Dr. Sparks, by Cyclone, along in front of the crowd, he was cheered lustily.
His two-year-old was the favorite with the betters. After scoring several times, the colts were given the word "go." Sparks broke soon after leaving the wire, which gave the others a good start. They, too, were up in the air several times, but the favorite didn't overhaul Burns' Mc-Gregor, the latter winning by several lengths—in 2:29. The youngsters behaved better in the next two heats, both of which were won by Hook's colt—in 2:27½ and 2:25½. Dr. Sparks did some phenomenal trotting in the last heat for a two-year-old. The first quarter was finished in 36 seconds, the half in 1:10 and the mile in 2:25½, breaking the record for colts of his age in a race. This was done, too, on a heavy track. Sparks is a wonderful trotter for his age.

The liverymen's stakes for foals of 18 6 didn't amount to much as an exhibition of speed. The entries were limited to Mason County horses. When Red Boy won the first heat, complaint was made to the judges that he was a four-year-old.
This his owner, Mr. D. B. Mitchell, recognized to be true, but said the owners of the other horses were fully acquainted with the fact at the time the entry was made. Red Boy trotted the rest of the race under protest.

There were several special races for records. Collet, a bay mare by Indianapolis, dam by Pacing Abdallah, paced a mile to beat 2:30 and made it in 2:29½.

A match race between Pattie Cooper and Lucy Belmont for $50 a side, best two in three, was won by the latter.

The display in the floral hall is much admired. It certainly equals past exhibitions in that department. A full list of the premiums will be published Monday.

The baby show took place yesterday afternoon in the floral hall. By special request the judges' names are not published. There were four contestants, Lillian May Huston being awarded the blue ribbon.

PROTEST FROM THE CITIZENS.

An Appeal Sent to the President and is Referred to the Secretary of War—Civil Service Recommendations—Appointments in the Census Department—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Governor Cooper of Colorado has sent to the President a telegram about the Indians. It was sent to the secretary of war for his action. The telegram reads:

"DENVER, Col. Aug. 23. 'I am just in receipt of the following communication by mail, signed by forty-seven citizens of Routt county, Colorado, adjoining the Uintah reservation:

"The undersigned, citizens of Routt county, beg leave to represent that large bodies of the Indians from White River reservation come into the north county to hunt. They slaughter the deer, kill and eat our cattle and steal our horses. They have permits from the agents for thirty and sixty days, some to Diamond Mountain, some to Beeson basin, Brown park, and Douglas springs and etc. They, together with their innumerable ponies and horses, have become a nuisance which we cannot longer peacefully endure. We respectfully request your honor to try and prevent their coming into Routt county again."

"I have to advise that our people of that region have suffered so much in life and property from these predatory Indians that they are in no temper to put up with their menacing presence again, and nothing but prompt and effective action on the part of the Federal government will prevent trouble. If there is to be by the fault of the Federal government. The action of the agent in giving them permits is, in view of the danger, almost an indefensible crime and should be properly rebuked. Your excellency will have better means of gaining official information than I concerning their absence from the reservation, and I earnestly urge you to take steps to recall them before trouble ensues."

Civil Service Recommendations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Civil Service Commission Chairman Linn says the recently published statement to the effect that the civil service commission had recommended to the president that chiefs of divisions in executive departments be appointed after competitive examination, is misleading. He says: "It is not true, as alleged, that the civil service commission has submitted to the president a proposition to amend the civil service rules in the manner suggested, nor has the commission disapproved the subject with him or even brought it to his attention. The commission is, however, unanimous in the opinion that any change in the civil service rules or the policy of the department that would lead to the filling of places of chiefs of divisions by the promotion of trained and competent subordinates instead of by the direct appointment of persons from the outside, ignorant of the duties of the places they are to fill, and often imbued with views of their relations to the public service not conducive to the highest efficiency would be in the interest of true reform and good administration."

"The removal of these places from the exempted class and the placing of them in the competitive class would not mean that appointments to them would necessarily or ordinarily be made by competitive examination, but by promotion the fittest of all ways for filling them. It would mean also that they would cease to be political prizes to be awarded for party service and become what they always should have been, and at one time largely were, places of trust and responsibility, and legitimate prizes to be won by faithfulness, integrity, efficiency, ability and adaptability, shown in the lower grades of the service."

Census Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Superintendent of Census Porter has appointed Dr. William C. Day a special agent of the eleventh census to collect the statistics relating to structural materials throughout the United States. Dr. Day took the degree of philosophy at Johns Hopkins university, and recently has been a special agent of the geological survey in Chicago of the statistics of mineral, structural materials. His work for the census will embrace the statistics, relating to granite, marble, common limestone, sandstone and slate. He was engaged in collecting similar statistics for the tenth census.

The superintendent of census has appointed Capt. Joseph W. Collins and Charles W. Smiley as special agents to collect the fishery statistics of the United States. Both of the gentlemen named were connected with the fishery census of 1880 and have since been identified with the work of the United States Fish commission. They possess a wide knowledge and experience in this line of work and will command the confidence and hearty co-operation of not only the commission but of all fishermen and others interested in securing accurate statistics concerning the important but difficult branch of the census work.

Old New York Politician Dead.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Police Capt. John Saunders, of the Third precinct, died suddenly this morning. He had been sick only a week. He was 50 years of age, and had served thirty years on the force.

Land, Stock and Crop.

C. F. Emery paid over $87,000 for his grand collection of brood mares and stallions.

The cotton crop of Texas this year will probably reach 2,000,000 bales, and the corn crop will be enormous.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "The indications now are that there will not be over 50 per cent. of a tobacco crop raised in this county, as compared with the crop of 1888. In the first place there was not a full acreage set. The wet weather killed out a great many low patches, and that set upon the ground upon which a crop was grown in 1888 seems to have done no good as a rule. There are some fine crops as ever grew, but they are the exception and not the rule. Cutting is now in active progress among the early setting."

A SYMPATHIZING friend to a hired girl who had just received a severe scolding from her mistress: "Mary, that woman talked awful mean to you." Mary: "Lah Jane, you ought to hear her go for her husband, then you would hear music that would make you have a chill. Why she only practices on me."

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 16 Wall St., New York.
